FIND OUT HOW YOU CAN HELP YOUTH BRIDGE

New England Youth Bridge Informational Meeting - Saturday eve

Would you like to help the future of bridge by bringing young people to the game? Are you interested in volunteering as a teacher? Do you know of a school or summer camp that might be interested in starting a bridge program? New England Youth Bridge is holding an informational meeting Saturday evening, June 22 at the Sturbridge Regional to let you know how you can help.

During the past two years NEYB has helped to establish four school bridge clubs within EMBA. NEYB has helped recruit volunteer teachers, has developed lesson plans and teaching aids that are available at no charge and provided financial support when requested and necessary to school clubs throughout the District. This year we have held joint tournaments with bridge school clubs from New Hampshire and Central Mass with each of the student participants winning ACBL masterpoints. We would like to expand our programs into many more schools and summer camps.

NEYB hopes to sponsor a Youth Tournament Day during the 2014 Fall Nationals in Providence and would like to have a large number of participating schools from District 25. We need your help to make this happen!

Congratulations!!!

Congratulations to Robert Williams and Susan Tordel Willaims of Ayer MA, who made life master yesterday by finishing tied for 6th overall in the Open Swiss Teams yesterday. Their teammates were Robert Eachus and Sarah Widhu.

Congratulations to Tuesday's Winners!
